Hey, I'm Miles! I've been shooting weddings week in week out for 10 years now. It's amazing to think of how many couples, venues, confetti throws and drunken uncles I've photographed in this time. Every wedding day still feels completely unique and my buzz for each and every 'big day' continues to grow!

My philosophy is simple. I believe each and every bride & groom should be entitled to quality wedding photographs they can cherish forever, at a price which is fair.

I like my photographs to feel as relaxed and natural as possible. I aim to capture every moment and make my couples say 'WOW' at the results. Striking the right balance between confidently coordinating the photographs that have been requested whilst also giving the bride & groom the space to enjoy their special day has been key to my success over the years.

I'd love to meet you over coffee and learn more about how I can document your wedding!"

We start with an initial consultation over coffee. I want to hear all about your plans for your big day and how I can be part of it! In the lead up to the wedding I'm available to discuss any ideas you may have, help suggest other vendors to make your day extra special or simply have a catch up! A final details consult will happen a month before the wedding date to run through timings and the finer details.

Due to demand I only offer all day coverage packages. This sees me cover bridal prep in the morning and every single detail all the way through to the first dance in the evening.

After the wedding I personally cull the shots taken to result in a collection of 550-1050 images. I don't like to put a definite limit on the amount of photos I deliver - if it's good, I include it! I then utilise the services of my image editor to ensure a professional post production process maximises every image's potential. My turn around time is a fast 4 weeks.

it contains everything you want,
and nothing you don't"

every detail. every moment. every memory

"With our increasingly fast paced world flying past us, photographs give us the means of preserving memories and cherishing a period in time that demands to be celebrated, not forgotten."

"I love the moment I hand over a collection of photographs to my clients and see their faces light up. Providing them with an heirloom which can be passed down the generations is a special thing, and one I hope to do for many years to come."

“Oh my gosh. I simply DO NOT have the words to describe how incredible Miles and his team are. They made our day so incredibly special from start to finish! He brought the vibes as soon as he got to us in the hotel and kept us going all day!! He joined in with our silly little jokes all morning and really kept the chilled, fun atmosphere with all the girls! Miles and his team are hard working, professional, dedicated and the photos were incredible. I wish we could do the whole day again, especially with you guys.”
